FRENCH AT A GLANCE

We have much to offer, whether you are interested in fulfilling language proficiency requirements, studying abroad in Summer or Winter session, pursuing a minor or a major, teaching French in K-12 or simply taking courses on a wide range of topics related to French-speaking cultures around the world, from gastronomy, film and theater to climate activism.

In teaching and research alike, our quest for academic excellence is grounded in a spirit of interdisciplinarity: for us, studying French fundamentally means opening as many doors as possible. Won’t you join us?
